USE PUBLISHED INFORMATION THROUGH A LINK OR QR

Help employees find a usable resource at the point of work

Search published resources or open a shared link or printable QR code. Match the audience setting to the people using the material so they can reach it at the point of work.

Search across categories > Open link or QR > Read or submit form

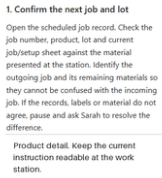

SkillSmith · Share an observation through a published form

1. Record the observation where work happens

Illustrative sample content. A worker can use a published form to share an observation without an assigned task.

SkillSmith · Keep the current instruction readable beside the work

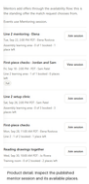

1. Confirm the next job and lot

Open the scheduled job record. Check the job number, product, lot and current job/setup sheet against the material presented at the station. Identify the outgoing job and its remaining materials so they cannot be confused with the incoming job. If the records, labels or material do not agree, pause and ask Sarah to resolve the difference.

Product detail. Keep the current instruction readable at the work station.

WHY SKILLSMITH / YOUR NEXT STEP

Bring your work; we help prepare the method

We work with your team to organize the source material, responsibilities and review choices. Start with one useful example, then carry the agreed method into everyday work.

Without connected follow-through	With SkillSmith
The needed instruction or form is away from the point of use.	Open the task's materials or a published resource through a direct link or QR entry.
A job label or group membership is treated as every kind of access.	Separate reporting scope, playbook availability, published use and collaboration permissions.
Useful working knowledge remains in an unowned draft.	Build, review and reuse resources with owners, versions and collaboration.
